U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE
CASE NO: 2:23-CR-20682

"Motion To Suppress Evidence"

FILED
NOV 19 2024

CLERK'S OFFICE
DETROIT

Now comes the defendant, Mubasher Riaz
by and through his Attorney Jean Pierre Nagues pursuant to U.S. Const Amend IV; Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 12 (3)(5); ASK this Honorable Court to suppress All evidence obtained from this unlawful search and seizure AS fruits-of-A-poisonous-tree-doctrine.

- (1). The defendant has A Constitutional right to be free from unlawful search & seizures.
- (2). All evidence obtained from this defendant was in violation of his IV Amendment right to the Constitution.
- (3). Pursuant to the exclusionary rule, evidence obtained in violation of the IV Amendment must be excluded AS fruits-of-A poisonous-tree.

Wherefore the defendant prays, this Honorable Court exclude All evidence obtained in this search As being in violation of the IV Amendment right to the Federal Constitution and Dismiss this case with prejudice.

Respectfully Submitted
